

HOW YOUR DOLLARS HELP:

EDUCATION

$5

a week

Provides a student with tutoring and homework assistance after school and during the summer

$10

a week

Helps an adult pass the GED and move on to post-secondary educational opportunities

$20

a week

Gives year-round mentoring and coaching to help a youth prepare for college or a career

$50

a week

Provides an at-risk teen a year of quality after-school programs, building leadership and character skills

HOW YOUR DOLLARS HELP:

FINANCIAL STABILITY

$5
a week

Provides financial literacy classes for someone who wants to become more self-sufficient

$10
a week

Assists a veteran in translating his military skills to a family-sustaining civilian job

$20
a week

Covers subsidized child care to allow a single parent the chance to secure a job

$50
a week

Puts a homeless individual back on track with specific skills training to become more employable

HOW YOUR DOLLARS HELP:

HEALTH

$5
a week

Offers prenatal and postpartum care for a mother and her new baby

$10
a week

Helps prepare new dads to help care for their children through group classes

$20
a week

Gives a student access to medical or dental care they would not otherwise receive

$50
a week

Provides intensive case management, home visitation and other services proven to prevent child abuse or neglect

HOW YOUR DOLLARS HELP:

BASIC NEEDS

$5
a week

Provides a week's worth of lunches for 50 hungry individuals, including children and seniors

$10
a week

Prevents a household from living without utilities for a month

$20
a week

Keeps a family from being evicted and becoming homeless

$50
a week

Re-houses two homeless families and provides them a safe and sustainable place to call "home"